The proposed option is an elevated structure over both the east and west embankments leading to the new Dalry Road crossing. The removal of existing trees on the embankments would be necessary to accommodate the elevated cycleways. There is the potential to replace this loss with new light foliage.

In order to enhance existing conditions for residential properties along Downfield Place, it is proposed that a sound barrier is installed between the West Approach Road and the cycleway. Some potential options are illustrated here.